The following transfer agreement must be signed and returned to the JCSE Editorial Office, 308 Ningxia Road, Qingdao, China 266071 before the manuscript can be published. For further information about JCSE policies and practices regarding copyright.

Transfer of copyright agreement

Copyright to the above-listed unpublished and original article submitted by the above author(s), the abstract forming part thereof, and any subsequent errata (collectively, the "Article") is hereby transferred to the Journal of Computational Science & Engineering (JCSE) for the full term thereof throughout the world, subject to the Author Rights and to acceptance of the Article for publication in a journal of JCSE. This transfer of copyright includes all material to be published as part of the Article. JCSE shall have the right to register copyright to the Article in its name as claimant, whether separately or as part of the journal issue or other medium in which the Article is included.

The author(s), and in the case of a Work Made For Hire, the employer named below, shall have the following rights (the "Author Rights"):

- (1) All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.
- (2) The nonexclusive right, after publication by JCSE, to give permission to third parties to republish print versions of the Article or a translation thereof, or excerpts there from, without obtaining permission from JCSE, provided the JCSE-prepared version is not used for this purpose, the Article is not republished in another journal, and the third party does not charge a fee. If the JCSE version is used, or the third party republishes in a publication or product charging a fee for use, permission from JCSE must be obtained.
- (3) The right to use all or part of the Article, including the JCSE-prepared version without revision or modification, on the author(s) web homepage or employers website and to make copies of all or part of the Article, including the JCSE-prepared version without revision or modification, or the author(s) and/or the employer's use for educational or research purposes.
- (4) The right to post and update the Article on free-access e-print servers as long as files prepared and/or formatted by JCSE or its vendors are not used for that purpose. Any such posting made or updated after acceptance of the Article for publication shall include a link to the online abstract in the JCSE journal or to the entry page of the journal. If the author wishes the JCSE-prepared version to be used for an online posting other than on the author(s) or employers website, JCSE permission is required; if permission is granted, JCSE will provide the Article as it was published in the journal, and use will be subject to JCSE terms and conditions.

All copies of part or all of the Article made under any of the Author Rights shall include the appropriate bibliographic citation and notice of the JCSE copyright.

By signing this Agreement, the author(s), and in the case of a Work Made For Hire, the employer, jointly and severally represent and warrant that the Article is original with the author(s) and does not infringe any copyright or violate any other right of any third parties, and that the Article has not been published elsewhere, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere in any form, except as provided herein. If each authors signature does not appear below, the signing author(s) represent that they sign this Agreement as authorized agents for and on behalf of all the authors, and that this Agreement and authorization is made on behalf of all the authors. The signing author(s) (and, in the case of a Work Made For Hire, the signing employer) also represent and warrant that they have the full power to enter into this Agreement and to make the grants contained herein.

If the Article has been prepared as a Work Made For Hire, the transfer should be signed by both the employee (above) and the employer (below):
